JUSTICE HITS THE RIGGS BANK

Calls Washington Institution Persistent Violator of Law

OBSERVES NO MALICE

Motion to Dismiss Injunction Suit Against Treasury Officials Taken Under Advisement.

Washington, May 22—At the conclusion of five days of argument Justice McCoy, of the District Supreme Court, took under advisement yesterday the motion of the Government to dismiss the suit brought by the Riggs National Bank to enjoin Secretary McAdoo, Comptroller of the Currency Williams and Treasurer Burke from alleged unlawful persecution of the bank.

Relief sought by the plaintiff pending litigation was denied by the court except as to the payment into the treasury of $5,000 interest on bonds due the bank and witheld to cover penalties imposed by the Comptroller for failure to furnish certain reports. A temporary restraining order against the payment of this money into the treasury was granted at the outset of the proceedings and the court later will pass upon the question of continuing it.

Justice McCoy indicated that he would occupy some time considering the case, but would endeavor to dispose of it before July 1. In denying the prayer for an injunction pending litigation, he said that without considering what evidence might hereafter be presented, there was nothing in the record before him now which showed the Government officials had exercised arbitrary power arbitrarily in regard to the refusal to select the Riggs Bank as a reserve agency.

"It seems to me on the record as it stands that the Government officials would be remiss in their duty in selecting it as an agent for new applicant banks," said the Justice. "The evidence here is of persistent violation of the law, and those violations did not begin when Mr. Williams came into office, and they have continued to this day."

As a judge in passing on banking questions, Justice McCoy added, it might not be out of place for him to say that the policy of not having deposits in Stock exchange banks, as compared with commercial banks, was a good one and that Congress had adopted the same view as expressed in the Federal Reserve act.

The Court also considered on the record as now made up the charge that Secretary McAdoo showed malice in an interview in his office with Riggs Bank officials. The justice said it appeared to him that the malice was rather "on the other side."

At the opening of the day's session Samuel Untermeyer, of Government counsel, presented a bookkeeper's affidavit that there were 6,000 stock transactions shown on the books of Lewis Johnson and Co., stock brokers in the name of the Riggs Bank.

Mr. Untermyer, who made the concluding argument for the Government after former Senator Bailey had closed for the bank, declared that it appeared that two officers of the bank were getting personal benefit from such transactions for which the Riggs Bank furnished the security.

"Do you know," asked Justice McCoy, "whether theree is anything to show that Johnson & Co., if the market had gone wrong, could have held anybody responsible but the bank, leaving out the question of whether the bank could have required reimbursement from a third party?"

The attorney declared the stock brokers could have recovered only from the bank.

"I think that the record as now made up," commented the Court, "shows that the Riggs Bank was dealing with Lewis Johnson & Co., in a legal sense, whatever interest may have been behind the dealing."

"Yes," and to say that such is scandalous is to express it mildly," added Mr. Untermyer.

Mr Untermyer turned to a further criticism of the account kept in the name of Flather & Flather.

"I have seen nothing in this record of any attempt at an explanation for the existing of such an account," said Justice McCoy.

Mr. Untermyer began answering an argument by Mr. Bailey that the law defining the powers of the Comptroller of the Currency as construed by the Government was unconstitutional but was stopped by an announcement that the Court was not in doubt on the point.

DISORDER IN BERLIN.

Youth Knocks Off Hat of Italian Ambassador

London, May 22—The Daily Mail correspondent at The Hague forwards a dispatch from Berlin, which states that a mob threatened the Italian embassy there yesterday afternoon.

It was dispersed by the mounted police and the approaches to the embassy are now guarded by the police.

Berlin, May 22—Riccardo Bollatti, Italian Ambassador to Germany, upon leaving the Italian embassy yesterday evening to go to a dinner at the Spanish embassy, was assaulted by a half grown youngster, who knocked off the Ambassador's hat. The boy was seized by passers-by and beaten before he was turned over to the police.

The government immediately sent apologies to the Ambassador. Deepest regret is expressed in Berlin. Precautions had been taken earlier to prevent any annoyance but as the day passed without the slightest evidence of trouble the detectives were withdrawn. Only a few women and youths were in the neighborhood when the incident happened.

WILL CALL 2,000,000 MEN

War against Italy May Be Opened by Terrible Drive.

London, May 22—The Copengagen correspondent of the Daily Mail telegraphs that the neutral travelers from Berlin bring the information that Germany is about to call 2,000,000 more men to the front.

According to these travelers, the German general staff estimates the number of men needed to defend the Austrian frontier against Italy is 500,000. Of this force half is now on the way to the Tyrolese frontier. They say Germany and Austria are receiving large supplies daily from Roumania.

It is believed here that the war against Italy will be opened by a terrific drive south from the Trentine into northern Italy, similar to that which brought the German armies to the gates of Paris last November. Many batteries of heavy guns are in purpose.

"WILLIAM BARNES IS A BOSS"

Jury in Barnes-Roosevelt Case Agree on A Verdict

Syracuse, N. Y., May 22—"William Barnes is a boss".

A jury so decided today in awarding a verdict for Col. Theodore Roosevelt in the $50,000 libel suit brought against the former President by Barnes because Roosevelt branded him a "boss" and linked him politically with crooked business and corruption.

The verdict was brought in shortly after 10 a. m. today. The jury had been deliberating since 3:45 p. m. Thursday—a period of about forty two hours. The twelve men finally arrived at a unanimous decision after a legal mix-up almost unparalleled in the history of New York State.

REPORT OF SEMINARY

Largest Attendance Since Civil War —Resolutions Appreciative of Alexandria's Hospitality.

The Council met for business at 3 o'clock with Bishop Coadjutor Brown in the chair. The Rev. Professor Rollins read the report of the Theological Seminary near this city, in place of Dean Crawford. This report is authorized by the Board of Trustees subject to the approval of the Council, which was gladly given. The report showed that the number of Theological students exclusive of the preparatory students formerly admitted, is the largest since the civil war. The present condition and prospects of the eminary are excellent.

The report of the Committee on Increase of the Ministry was next presented by the Rev. Prof. Rollins. It called attention to the number of candidates for the ministry and stated the needs of the Education Society which supports students at the Seminary. The need of selecting suitable young men for the ministry was earnestly dwelt upon. The recommendation was renewed that the clergy of the diocese preach at least once during the year on the subject of the ministry.

The important report of the committee on the State of the Church was presented by the Rev. W. H. Burkhardt. It expressed thanfulness to God for the improved condition of Bishop Gibson's health and the consecration of Bishop Coadjutor Brown who has given such efficient help to the Bishop. The steady development of the work of the diocesee in every part is most encouraging and it is incumbent upon her people to forward it by every means in their power. The reports of the Social Service Commission on diocesan missions, in the Bible and prayer book distribution Society, on woman's work in their financial relations, and on the Brotherhood of St. Paul were read by the Rev. G. McL. Brydon.

The Council was then invited by the Rev. W. G. Pendleton, of St. James' Church, Warrenton, to meet in that church next year

The Rev. W. D. Smith, D. D., read the report of the principal of Stuart Hall, Staunton, Va., Miss Duval, who leaves to take charge of a female school in Charles Town, West Va. It showed that the school was in a prosperous condition. Stuart Hall will now be under the immediate superintendancee of the Diocese of Virginia and Southern Virginia.

The Rev. H. B. Lee, D. D., read the report of St. Ann's School at Charlottesville, for the principal. Its development has been steady, and shows great gratifying progress. The one purpose of the school is to educate the daughters of foreign and diocesan missionaries free of charge. The expenses of the school are kept at a reasonable rate.

The report of the committee on the amendments to the constitution of the General Church, endorsing these, was read by the Rev. Professor Wallis and accepted by the Council. The first of these provides for the election of the presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church instead of the present succession in office by senority of consecration.

It was agreed that a dollar be the amount charged to the contingent fund for each clergyman annually to meet the expenses of the Province of Washington of which the diocese of Virginia forms a part whenever funds are needed. Other reports of committees and secretaries were presented for them by the Rev. E. L. Goodwin, D. D., including that of the Woman's Auxiliary.

The cordial thanks of the Council were expressed to the rector and congregation of Christ Church and to the rectors and congregations of St. Paul's and Grace Churches as well as to the people of the old city of Alexandria for their generous hospitality during the session of the 120th annual Council of the Diocese of Virginia, which will always be a most delightful remembrance. This resolution was presented by the Rev. W. D. Smith, D. D., of Winchester, Va., and unanimously passed by the Council.

Adjournment took place sine die at twenty minutes of five o'clock after the singing of the hymn, "Blest be the tie that binds," and prayers and benediction by Bishop Coadjutor Brown.

The Council was marked by the harmony of its proceedings and it was noted with great satisfaction on the part of all that Bishop Gibson presided at all the sessions except the last one on Friday evening. This showed that he had regained much of his strength after his illness of more than a year.

The most important pieces of legislation was the passing of the canon which makes the provisions of the Church Pension Fund available for the diocese of Virginia. There were very few clerical visitors at this Council. Among those noticed were the Rev. Arthur Johns, D. D., the Rev. McBride Sterrett, D. D., and the Rev. Mr. Buck, all of the diocese of Washington. A number of the students of the Episcopal Seminary near this city, were in attendance upon all the sessions.

OVERRULED BY STATE AUDITOR

Important Question Concerning Payment of Poll Taxes

WILL TAKE AN APPEAL

Moore Holds That it is Not Necessary for Man to Pay Back Taxes in Order to Qualify to Vote.

Richmond, May 22—City Treasurer Pace was verbally overruled by State Auditor Moore in the matter of poll tax payments. At the City Treasurer's office it was said that the case would be taken to the Supreme Court if necessary.

For some time the City Treasurer has held that when personal property taxes and poll taxes are long delinquent, they should be paid together and that a man may not be allowed to pay his poll taxes, thus qualifying to vote, unless he pays at the same time or has already paid his other taxes.

Auditor Moore, in an unofficial opinion given today, said that a man could not be denied the right to pay a part of his taxes if he desired to do so; that no city or county treasurer or tax collector could refuse to receive a citizen's poll taxes because the personal property tax bill had not been paid; in short, that no man could be deprived of his constitutional right to vote by the ministerial act of an officer.

If the matter is tested Attorney General Pollard will have to represent the Commonwealth, and for that reason he said he preferred not to give an opinion unless officially called upon by Auditor Moore. It is understood, however, that the Auditor has high and ample legal authority behind his ruling.

Auditor Moore, while highly complimenting City Treasurer Pace upon his efficiency said he could not agree with his ruling that delinquent personal taxes and delinquent poll taxes constituted one bill. Moreover, he said, even if they do there is no law that he knows of to keep a man from paying $1.50 when he owes it, and he further said that if a tax officer should refuse to accept a man's poll taxes he believed the man proving this could demand and be given the right to vote anyway.

THE VATICAN ARMY

What Will Become of Corps in Event of War?

New York, May 22—Just what will happen to the corps comprising the Vatican army in case Italy engages in active warfare is a question that is puzzling Roman Catholics. Under the Italian law all citizens are subject to military duty, and the fact that the great majority of the Vatican guards are men who have served in the Italian army and therefore doubly bound to service in case of war, only adds to the confusion.

So far as the Swiss guards are concerned, all of them who were eligible for service in Switzerland were recalled there at the time of the first Swiss mobilization.

The papal gendarmes, the palatine guards and the noble guards are all Italian citizens and therefore liable to service under the Italian colors. The law explicitly provides that pontifical guards cannot ask exemption from military service.

Besides the hundreds of men employed in the Vatican—custodians of the museums and galleries, lay clerks in the departments and offices, gardeners, coachmen and caretakers—all will have to go when the call to the colors comes.

An unprecedental situation is thus created. The Vatican will be deprived of the larger part of the great retinue necessary for its upkeep, while there will not be enough guards left to provide men for the numerous posts about the pontifical premises. For the first time since the foundation of the temporal power of the Popes the army of the pontiff will to all intents and purposes be disbanded.

MEMORIAL DAY MONDAY

Annual Parade of Survivors of Confederate Army Will Take Place at the Close of the Day.

As has been their custom for many years, Alexandrians and others residing with us who were members of the armies of the late Southern Confederacy will be mobilized under the anspices of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans on Monday evening. This annual turnout is one of the most interesting and impressive in Alexandria's calendar, and the streets are invariably crowded with men, women and children on this occasion. The veterans will, as is their wont, gather around the monument at the intersection of Prince and Washington streets, where most of the exercises will take place. The principal feature is an appropriate address which is generally in the nature of an exposition of the principles which animated this section of the country in 1861 and which led to a resort to arms. The addresses are always well-studied and are a means of education to the thousands of the present generation many of whom need to have these truths burned in their souls as they are in those who wore the grey. This year the orator will be the Rev. J. W. Duffey, D. D., pastor of the Southern Methodist Church.

The survivors have long been numbered among the grey beards of our city, affording a marked contrast to their young and vigorous spirits over half a century ago, some of whom had not at that time reached their majority. They are now grandfathers, and their progeny look with pride upon them as the heroes of bygone days, but whose heroism has not become eclipsed by the great volume of history the world has since made.

Commander William A. Smoot, who has during so many occasions headed the noble band, will be missed this year. He is at this time in a Baltimore Hospital which he entered over a week ago to receive treatment for a chronic complaint. At the Episcopal Council in this city yesterday expressions of sympathy and prayers for the speed recovery of a good woman were uttered. Oral and mental invocations are ascending for the speedy recovery of an equally good man, and that heaven may be moved in the interests of both is the sincere wish of all who know them.

The Woman's Auxiliary to R. E. Lee Camp, ask that all members, friends, and those interested in the work, to send flowers and vines to Confederate Veteran's Building on Monday. The building will be open early in the day and the ladies in charge will gladly receive all flowers donated.

Members of the organization are requested to report promptly at ten o'clock for work.

SEND THE FLOWERS.

R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, earnestly requests all having flowers to send as many as possible to Lee Camp Hall early Monday morning for the decoration of the monument and the graves of the Southern soldiers. Ladies of the auxiliary will be at the home to receive them.

SEPTUAGENARIAN'S HIKE

Former Alexandrian Walks 700 Miles to Attend Confederated Reunion at Richmond.

Arthur Rope Murray, 70 years old, of Murrfreesboro, Tenn., has arrived in Richmond after a 700-mile hike, to attend the United Confederate Veterans' reunion on June 1-3, and to make his home in Virginia.

Mr. Pope Murray was a member of the Alexandria Light Artillery, Kemper's Battery, of the Confederate Army. While at his home near Murfreesboro, he read that George W. Sheram, of Forsythe, Ga., would walk to the reunion and he decided to make the trip on foot. He was overjoyed after tramping over the Cumberland, Mountains to Knoxville, thence across the Alleghenies to Asheville, thence to Danville, Va., and on to Richmond, to find that he had beaten the Georgia veteran. He made the 700 miles in 19 days and appears hale and hearty.

DISSENSION IN WEST VIRGINIA.

The labor element of West Virginia is dissatisfied and clamoring for a further division of what was up to the war between the states a part of the Old Dominion. People of the western section of Virginia at that time concluded that they had no interests in common with the other portion of the commonwealth, refused to contend for the rights guaranteed the state by the federal constitution, and left the eastern section to the mercy of invaders. In the same language representatives of four of her counties are eager to form another state and in so doing would recognize the debt which is claimed by Virginia from West Virginia.

Conditions have for some time been unsatisfactory in the offspring of the Old Dominion.

By the passage by the House of Delegates yesterday of the omnibus revenue bill providing an estimated annual revenue of $1,000,000 the legislature will now be able to reinstate in the appropriation bill being made up all the items vetoed by Governor Hatfield during the closing hours of the regular session last February and at the same time provide for the deficiencies.

Following the passage of the omnibus revenue bill Delegate Weiss, the labor member from Ohio county offered the following resolution:

"Whereas, the counties of Hancock, Brooke, Ohio and Marshall, having nothing in common with other counties of West Virginia, be it

"Resolved, That a joint committee of five, two from the Senate and three from the House, be appointed to report to the next legislature the advisability of dividing West Virginia and putting the said four counties into a separate state, to be known as the State of Zane. The said State of Zane would assume and pay the Virginia debt as owed by the State of West Virginia, and shall further pay such proportion of the revenues of the State of West Virginia as at any time found necessary to the State of West Virginia."

ITALY'S ENTRANCE INTO THE WAR.

Italy's participation in the war, while welcomed in many quarters, is not expected even by the most optimistic to result in any quick termination of hostilities. While it may lead to immediate benefit for the allies, it is feared that complications of a most serious character may result.

Russia's ambition has been not only to gain Constantinople, but also to reach the Adriatic. By the establishment of Italy upon the eastern shore of the Adriatic, the claims of Rome and Petrograd may come into sharp conflict. They will have to be adjusted after the present war.

How they can be adjusted no one can forsee. Even the complete annihilation of the fighting strength of Germany and Austria will not solve the problems. In the Balkans Greece Bulgaria and Roumania must be reckoned with whether they will follow Italy in the war or remain neutral. Servia, too, will want territory.

The impotency of diplomacy to effect a satisfactory settlement after the Balkan war undoubtedly precipitated the present fearful struggle, and when the this conflict shall have been brought to a termination there is no power on earth which can adjust everything to the entire satisfaction of the countries involved. It is a well-known fact that Italy will not relish Russia as a close neighbor, yet this will be inevitable if the allies win.

At the close of our revolutionary war a sort of chaos existed in our own land. The independence of the country had been recognized by George the Third, but each state seemed to suppose it was to be sovereign and that a federal head was contrary to the principles for which the continentals fought. Washington, Jefferson and others had their respective views concerning the formation of the federation, but the issues were not finally settled until eighty years later at Appomattox.

At the windup of the European war many delegates to the peace conference will return to their homes dissatisfied, and sores will be nursed which will inevitably lead to other conflicts later on.

ATTACKS ON KITCHENER.

One of the most remarkable features of the ministerial crisis in Great Britain at the present moment is the sudden outbreak, more or less severe, of newspaper attacks upon Field Marshal Earl Kitchener, the British secretary of war, who at the outbreak of the war, was the nation's military idol, and was loudly proclaimed by the same newspapers as the only man in the country for the position of war secretary.

Kitchener, it is charged, persisted in providing shells of an inferior make, which resulted in the loss of thousands of Britons. It is also suggested that he is not equal to present emergencies, and that the struggle with Germany cannot be conducted upon principles which were used in the Boer war.

Great Britain is piqued because she has not made the headway she expected in the western battle zone, and the blame is to be laid somewhere. Kitchener, like many before him, will have to bear with fickle people. Epaminondas, Fabius and others centuries ago had their critics and they were compelled to step aside for others who proved failures. In our civil war Gen. oseph E. Johnston was one of the greatest strategists of his day, but he was forced to resign his command and turn it over to General Hood. The latter however did not halt Sherman in his march to the sea.

On the other side General McClellan was the idol of the Army of the Potomac for a time. His themometer, however, finally started to fall and he was forced to relinquish his position. His successors were unfortunate and in the end it took virtually all the federal troops under Grant to crush the Confederacy.

Edgar H. Lytle, 37 years old, who was injured in a motorcycle accident on Falls road near Baltimore, last Wednesday night, died at St. Joseph's Hospital Thursday night. At the time of the accident Lytle was riding tandem with Emory Brown, of Brooklandville, near Mount Washington. To avoid colliding with an automobile, Brown, who was driving the motorcycle swerved sharply to one side, throwing Lytle from his seat. Lytle's head struck an embankment, while Brown, although thrown to the ground, escaped injuries.

Ivan C. Johnson, aged 67 years, proprietor of a confectionery store at the University of Virginia, died Thursday. He was a native of Isle of Wight county and the following children survive: Mrs. Rober B. Adams, Alexandria; Miss Carrie Johnson, Salem; Misses Mattie, Mabel, Florence and Elizabeth Johnson, Elmer Willie, Ernest and Irvin Johnson, Charlottesville.

Yesterday's session of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the South in Newport News was featured by the report on evangelism submitted by Rev. H. F. Miley and a formal protest from the Transylvania Presbytery of Kentucky against the General Assembly's action a year ago in adopting a resolution for national prohibition. The total membership of the church, Dr. Miley reported, now is 332,339, or a net increase of 21,727 for the year. The Transylvania Presbytery's protest was based on the ground that to advocate any political issue was not in keeping with the constitution of the church, which permits the Assembly merely to advise or petition in political matters.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework.

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Athletic Association Elects Officers For Next Session—Winners of Mdeals to be Decided.

At a second meeting Tuesday of the Boys' Athletic Association, following a preliminary meeting Monday at which nominations were made the large numbers of nominees for and later posted on the bulletin board, officers were elected for next year. Gus Pohl, president, presided, and several close ballots resulted among the various offices. After a short while, however, the meeting adjourned with the positions voted for as follows: President, William Schafer, 1916; vice president, Robert Hancock, 1917; secretary, James Goodwin, 1916; treasurer, Thomas Watties, 1917. Mr. Johnson, principal, was unanimously chosen faculty member of the athletic board, which is composed of the four officers of the association, a member of the faculty, and a member-at-large from the association, and directs a large part of High School athletics. The position of member-at-large was held open until the close of school, after the constitution had been amended by vote to make compulsory for one of the team captains to fill that position. As the captain of football for next year is now president the honor will probably fall to the one who is elected captain of next year's baseball at the end of the present season.

The Girls' Athletic Association elects officers Thursday, June 3.

Two of the best debates heard since the organization of the A. H. S. Literary Society took place last Saturday night to decide the pair who would in the final stage of the contest for the medal which comes off on Saturday, June 5th. The subject of the first was "Resolved, that labor unions, as organized and managed in the United States, are a benefit to the public," and of the second, "Resolved, that American boys should be given military training," the affirmative and negative of the first being Miss Dolly Calahan and Miss Anna Haslett, respectively, and of the second William Morton and Gus Pohl. In both cases the speaker for the negative was given the decision, although both were close and hard to decide. The judges were the Rev. J. W. Duffey, Mr. Robinson Moncure and Mr. Harry D. Kirk.

At the meeting it was also decided to hold a declamation contest on Wednesday, June 2nd, for the medal to be awarded at commencement to the best declaimer of the society. Six or eight contestants will speak as shown by the number of names filed with the secretary. Both contests give promise of being held before a large crowd, as Miss Haslett and Gus Pohl, affirmative and negative respectively, for June 5th, will speak anly as can the ones who have vanquished ten other contestants after six weeks of hard work, and as there is no want of excellent declaimers in the school.

The Alexandria High School baseball team left this morning at 10:30 in automobiles for Charlotte Hall, Md., where they play this afternoon the strong Charlotte Hall team in the final game of the season, unless another game or so is secured from a Washington team for a later date. Twelve men were taken, accompanied by Mr. Prettyman, coach.

APPEALS IN FRANK'S BEHALF

Alleged that Trial Judge Belief Condemned Man Innoce-

Atlanta, Ga., May 22—In a letter to Governor Slaton and the State prison commission urging clemency for Leo M. Frank, Judge A. G. Powell, a former member of the State court of appeals, asserted that the the late Judge Roan, who presided at the trial, often had expressed to him the belief that Frank was innocent of the Mary Phagan murder.

"I was an intimate friend of Judge Roan," Judge Powell's letter stated. "If he were living I would not attempt to speak for him. Since his mouth is closed by death I feel it is due to him and to Frank that I should give you the benefit of what I know of how he felt as to the defendant's guilt."

At Judge Roan's request, Judge Powell said, he prepared portions of the court's charge to the jury.

"I mention this fact," the letter added, merely to show I had opportunity of intimate knowledge of the state of his (Judge Roan's) mind."

Judge Powell said he was unable to explain "why Judge Roan, with these views did not grant the new trial, which from the conversation with him I fully expected him to grant."

DEMONSTRATION IN VIENNA

Austrian Capital in High Spirit—Confident of Victory

Berlin, May 22—The Lokal Anzeiger says it learns from Vienna that a great patriotic demonstration has taken place before the war ministry there. The crowds sang patriotic songs and greeted the officials with outbursts of tremendous cheering.

All Vienna is in high spirit. The people, the newspapers assert, feel that war with Italy is inevitable and their confidence in victory is higher than at the outbreak of the war with Serbia.

"Certainly the addition of Italy to the hostile side means for the central powers and Turkey postponement of their final victory, but not in the same degree at the present moment as would have been the case months ago" writes Maj. Moraht, the military critic, in the Tageblatt.

"Maj. Moraht considers that Italy has now reached the highest point in her preparations.

"So long as no defeats occur and the spirit which plays an important role in Italian character does not suffer," he continues, "we must count upon energetic conduct of the war."

Major Moraht believes an advance against Bozen, an Austrian town in the Tyrol and against Villach, in Carinthia, is projected by Italy preliminary to a movement on Trieste.

The Berlin papers publish long reports of the meeting yesterday of the Italian chamber of deputies. Few make editorial comment, but those which discuss the situation take a resolute but unexcited attitude. The most prominent feeling expressed is revulsion at what is regarded as Italy treachery in turning on a formar ally.

Budapest, Hungary, May 22.—On receipt of the warlike news from Italy great crowds paraded the streets in a patriotic demonstration. They cheered Germany and Turkey, singing the national anthems of those countries in front of their consulates.

Crowds attempted to reach the Italian consulate, but were held back by the police.

ITALY'S WAR DECLARATION

Message Will Start for Vinnna Before Night

Rome, May 22—Italy's war declaration will go flashing on its way to Vienna before night, according to a well-defined rumor credited in diplomatic circles here today.

King Vitcor Emmanuel, called in his private secretary early today and began preparing a document to be addressed to the people of Italy.

In government circles it was said the document will be a proclamation of war, signed by every member of the cabinet, explaining how Italy was compelled to resort to arms in order to safeguard her national honor and integrity.

The German and Austrian ambassadors were still in Rome early today, according to attaches of the embassies. Both were reported preparing to depart this afternoon.

Rome, May 22—Roumania is secretly mobilizing almost her entire army according to private dispatches from Bucharest received here today.

TRIES TO WRECK EXPRESS.

Miscreant Fails to Derail Odd Fellows' Train on Curve.

Stroudsburg, Pa., May 21.—An attempt was made yesterday to wreck Pennsylvania passenger train which left East Stroudsburg at 2:35 p. m., on the curve about two miles below.

This is one of the sharpest curves in the road, and if the attempts had been successful hundreds of passengers might have been killed or injured, as the cars would have gone down a 15-fool embankment.

The train was crowded with delegates returning to their homes from the Odd Fellows' Grand Lodge convention, which closed yesterday.
